Sleep on a Train! Galveston's Only Rail-Hotel Now Available

GALVESTON, TX - Celebrate the New Year with a unique experience at the Galveston Railroad Museum. Reserve one two luxury railcars, Bonnie Brook or Silver Foot, for an overnight stay on Galveston Island. Located at 2602 Sant Fe Place, in the heart of historic downtown Galveston, the Island's first and only 'rail-hotel' offers guests a sentimental journey through time.

Both cars feature a hospitality suite complete with dining and reception car, sleeping accommodations for up to ten, full kitchen, one full bath, 4 – half baths, and 24-hour porter service, each comfortably appointed car offers the perfect get away. Visit the Railroad Museum, spend the day touring, shop the Historic Downtown District, dine in your car, or choose from a number of adjacent restaurants in the area. The Museum concierge is at your service.

Think romantic getaway, family reunions, corporate meetings, special events or occasions. The Galveston Railroad Museum invites you to experience the luxurious Bonnie Brook or Silver Foot. Complimentary parking and concierge. For detailed information, additional railcars available, rates and reservations go to www.GalvestonRRMuseum.org.
